1. The headquarters building (see Annex "A") of the Stalinogrod Voivodship UB (Security Police) is located at 31 ul. Powstancow, Stalinogrod (Katowice). This sprawling five-storied building houses the office of the Chief of the Stalinogrod Voivodship UB (Szef Urzadu Wojewodzkiego) and all the operative departments. The building is bordered on three sides by ul. Powstancow, ul. Rybnicka, and ul. Lompy. The main entrance is the ul. Powstancow gate and is actually the only entrance in use. A corridor runs the length of the basement with offices on one side and prison cells on the other. The windows of these cells, which overlook ul. Lompy, are approximately one-half meter square and are barred. In 1952, a separate prison building<sup>1</sup> was erected in the courtyard.
2. The Stalinogrod UB Quartermaster Department (See Annex "B") is located in a four-storied building at 11 ul. Poniatowskiego. In this building, which was used by the Gestapo during the German occupation, UB personnel receive their pay and are issued their uniforms, boots, etc. The UB hospital building and dispensary are located next to the quartermaster building.
3. The following individuals have been leading officials in the Stalinogrod UB:
  1. Jaworowski (fau)<sup>2</sup>, who has been the UB Chief for the Stalinogrod voivodship since 1952.
  2. Col. Dowgan (fnu)<sup>3</sup>, who was the UB Chief in Stalinogrod until 1952.
  3. Col. Jozef Kratko, who was Col. Dowgan's predecessor at Stalinogrod.

Comments:

1. Location of this building was not reported.
